

CIVIL WARFARE IS AGAIN STARTED BY BAYONNE STRIKERS; WOMAN IS KILLED

MRS. STEPHEN POPP, AGED 60, DIES OF FRIGHT AS RIOTERS SURROUND HOME.

SERIOUS TROUBLE TO COME

POPPING OF REVOLVERS AND OF RIFLES IS HEARD IN NEW JERSEY TOWN.

(International News Service.)

Bayonne, Oct. 14.—Civil warfare again flared up here today. After 12 hours of calm, at three separate points battles were fought between police and strike sympathizers. The crack of revolver and rifle shots again is the predominant noise in this strife-torn town.

Mrs. Stephen Popp, 60, died of fright when the police entered her house to search for weapons. She is the second woman to fall victim to the oil strike and is the fourth dead. As she opened her door early today to the police who had formed a strong cordon about the house a mob of 1,000 rioters gathered, surrounding the officers.

The police opened a volley from their riot guns into the throng, and at the first shot Mrs. Popp clutched at her heart and fell back on her floor dead.

The mass meeting which was to have been held this afternoon to persuade the strikers to resume work was called off by Director of Public Safety Wilson. It was feared the gathering would result in more rioting.

Four thousand workers at the Bayway plant walked out today, increasing the number of strikers to nearly 15,000. At least 500 strikers today are suffering from gunshot wounds, police reports say.

Hughes Pounds on Peace in Tour West

(International News Service.)

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 14.—Chas. E. Hughes brought the "twin gospels" of peace and a republican tariff to the farmers of Nebraska today. Many stops were made at small stations and at each Gov. Hughes pounded on these two themes, temporarily side tracking all others.

"I am a man of peace," he told a large audience here. "There is nothing more extraordinary in this campaign than the claim of the administration that it has kept us out of war. Only the most inexcusable blundering could have brought this nation into war. When the war ends we will find a great deal of labor disappointment in this country. We must apply the republican tariff."

SUPPORTS FAMILY WITH ODD EQUIPAGE

The high cost of living does not pinch John W. Bell of Washington, owner of a fine pair of goats and a six-wheel wagon and trailer, which has a capacity of from 500 to 900 pounds. He hauls everything, from trash to family furniture, and on Sundays sells Sunday newspapers from his wagon. He has a wife and three children, and the goats support them all, the animals subsisting for the most part on rubbish nibbled here and there on their trips.

CHICAGO BANDITS ROB IN DAYLIGHT

Lipsey, purchasing agent for a printing concern on his return from the bank, grabbed the bag containing the money and escaped in a limousine. Hundreds were passing at the time.

Villa Coming Back Say Mexican Reports

Brigand Declared to be Again in Ascendancy South of Border.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Oct. 14.—Francisco Villa, Mexican military genius or outlaw, according to the varying tides of fortune, is about to come into his own again. Continued reports reaching Washington today from unimpeachable sources declare that negotiations are now in progress between Villa and Cientifico leaders on the border.

According to the reports reaching here the good offices of one Dr. Romanoff, an Austrian soldier of fortune, who has been with the bandit leader ever since the Columbus raid, is being utilized. However, most of the reports reaching Washington are not credited.

Daily Cotton Letter

(BY J. L. JULIAN.)

October 14, 1916.

Messrs. Beer wire today as follows: "Returns to the census bureau show that while consumption in United States during September was larger than for the corresponding month last year, it was smaller than for August this year, exclusive of linters, 529,000 vs. 499,000 last year and 559,000 August this year. Linters consumed during September 62,000, last year 67,000 and 72,000 in August of this year, or a total including linters of 591,000 vs. 566,000 in September of last year and 631,000 during August of this year. Inasmuch as September consumption in the United States was less than for the month of August this year the returns were rather smaller than generally anticipated although somewhat larger than for September of last year. Accordingly the market was rather easier in the early hours but the Washington weather bureau reported a tropical disturbance in the Caribbean sea of hurricane character heading for the Yucatan channel which leads into the Gulf of Mexico.

Fear of the storm working into the Gulf of Mexico over Sunday and an advance of 31 points in local spot quotations stimulated buying at near the close of the market.

The value of spot cotton here is now higher than by about 48 points than the higher level reached during the Sully season of 1903-04, or 16.81 vs. 16.43, still the demand is urgent as ever.

According to the census report the consumption in the United States for the first two months of the season August and September, including linters, was 1,222,000 vs. 1,091,000 last year. At the close of September this year 32,334,000 spindles were operating against 32,299,000 at the close of August this year, and 31,300,000 at the close of September last year, which indicates a continuance of a heavy consumption by the American mills.

Next week the market will likely be governed by semi-monthly private crop reports, the weather and political developments, spot demands and predictions regarding the quantity of cotton ginned to Oct. 18. To Oct. 18, last year, about 5,713,000 were ginned to the 15th of October. Year before last 7,620,000 to Sept. 25. This year 4,063,000 were ginned vs. 2,904,000 last year, and 3,390,000 in 1914. Indications are that ginnings to Oct. 18 this year will be heavy."

PARKER, MOOSE CANDIDATE, COMES OUT FOR WILSON

TAKES FLING AT ROOSEVELT WHEN HE IS NOTIFIED OF NOMINATION.

(International News Service.)

New York, Oct. 14.—John M. Parker, progressive candidate for vice-president, in a speech at the Biltmore Hotel this afternoon, took a bitter fling at Colonel Roosevelt and urged the re-election of President Wilson.

PRESIDENT TO TELL HUGHES THE LAW

WILL REPLY TODAY TO CANDIDATE'S ATTITUDE ON LUSTANIA SINKING.

(International News Service.)

Shadow Lawn, Oct. 14.—One of the features of President Wilson's speech to Pennsylvania democrats this afternoon was expected to be an adroit reply to Chas. E. Hughes' declaration as to what he would have done in the Lusitania incident.

The president's advisers feel that Mr. Hughes' allusion was of such a character that the president can abandon his policy and make a reference to it. Eight special trains rolled in here today, bringing about 3,000 Pennsylvanians, for this was "Pennsylvania Day" at the summer White House. Seven bands played.

AEROPLANES NOW HUNT FOR U-BOATS ALONG ATLANTIC

SUBMARINE DEPREDATIONS ARE SAID TO HAVE BEGUN TEN DAYS AGO.

(International News Service.)

Newport, Oct. 14.—United States naval aeroplanes are to be used in patrol duty along the coast and in the search for any secret submarine base the Germans may have established on the coast. The aviation ship North Carolina arrived here today with full equipment of flying machines and will co-operate with the fleet of destroyers that have been looking for neutrality violations.

CAPTAIN OF BOYC SAYS HE DIDN'T SEE U-BOAT.

(International News Service.)

New York, Oct. 14.—The steamer Boyc which arrived here today failed to clear up the mystery as to whether a submarine had been seen at sea on Friday. ## ADMIRALTY SERVICE SHIPS ARE SUNK.

(International News Service.)

These reports cannot be confirmed here because of British censorship in Canada.

Blacklist Answer is Started From London

Complications Between U. S. and Entente May Reach Head Soon.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Oct. 14.—Complications between the United States and the entente powers will come to a head within the next week. Already the joint refusal of Great Britain and France to accept the American construction on international law as applied to mail is before the state department. The reply to the demand that the British blacklist be abolished is en route from London.

It states that this action is of no concern to the United States, as it is a "legitimate measure of defense." It is stated in official quarters that President Wilson, probably will not take steps to define the position of the United States in either matter at this time.

Albany High Smothered by Huntsville Heavies

The Albany high school team, in its initial game of the season at Huntsville yesterday got just what it expected—a severe drubbing. The local lightweights were smothered by the attacks of the Huntsville heavies, who outweighed them 50 pounds to the man. The locals, though new at the game, put up a scrappy fight against odds. A return engagement with the Huntsville second team is being planned, in order to have a contest between aggregations of something near similar bulk.

The optimistic, however, claiming to from its Athens correspondent quoting King Constantine as saying that within 15 days Roumania will have been entirely overrun and will be completely in the hands of the Germans. ## Sunday School Workers Confer at Hartselle

Definite Plans Are Made to Raise Standards.

County officers present from the Twin Cities are C. L. Peck, president; H. L. Turner, secretary-treasurer and J. F. Lovin, secondary division superintendent. Practically every district in the county was represented at this conference.

Among the definite lines of work taken up for the year was the arranging of a county campaign in the near future, to go into every district with a well planned program, with one of the state officers assisting. The Every School Campaign was adopted. The districts of the county were divided between the different county officers, so that each school will be visited at least once during the year, and when the visits are made, try to help the school in a definite way and add a banner school point, front line point, etc.

A district convention schedule was arranged similar to that of last year. Definite plans were made to raise the county standard.

Sidewalk Spitting Decreased In Decatur

Although no arrests have been made yet, the practice of spitting on the sidewalks of the city of Decatur has been materially decreased since the police began their campaign against it.

The Daily stated several days ago that it as a violation of the law and punishable by a fine of $3.75 for spitting on the streets. Sidewalks were meant instead of streets, as it is not a violation of the law to spit on the streets. It is illegal, however, to spit on the sidewalks.

TRADING AT HOME IS PROSPERITY'S FATHER.

Did you ever stop to think of the favors you receive from your home town? Did you ever consider your own dependence on home support? If you never did, do so now, and begin trading at home. Looked at purely from a business standpoint, do the few dollars you imagine some times that you save by trading away from home compensate you for the loss of business that results by the effect of this draining of home funds by out-of-town concerns? If everybody traded at home, wouldn't business in all lines be good? Wouldn't money be plentiful? Wouldn't real estate enhance in value? Wouldn't there be more positions for clerks and working folks? Wouldn't there be a general air of prosperity, such as is found in those places that are kept humming by the dollars made here? Begin to trade at home now. Get thoughtful.

EUROPE AND MEXICO.

Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico, made a speech in Evanston, Ill., the other night in which, according to the Daily's lights, he left the beaten path of facts and wandered off in the realms of fancy.

Senator Fall claims that European nations would have intervened in Mexico long ago had they not been occupied with the great war, and that they will demand vast damages from us for their losses in Mexico, because we have undertaken to protect them there and have not done so.

In his first statement Senator Fall overlooks the fact that Mexico was in serious trouble some several years before the European war broke out. A president or two had been assassinated before the German advance on Belgium had been even thought of. Hostility to foreigners and their interests had been unmistakably shown long before the formal declarations of war between the European powers. Why did not the European nations intervene then?

As to the second statement we cannot imagine how the European powers can hold the United States responsible for their losses incurred in Mexico. The United States has never issued a formal guarantee to the world that it will keep order in Mexico. It has not led foreign investors to believe that their investments would be in fact through the mediation of the United States. It would certainly be, as we see it, the height of impudence to suggest that the United States is responsible for losses to Europeans in Mexico.

It was just this refusal on the part of President Wilson to use the armies of the United States for a needless and bloody war of conquest that has brought on all this debate on Mexico. He knew that calculating men were behind the movement for intervention and American troops fighting in Mexico would be battling not for any rights this nation has lost but for the dirty gold of the corporations and men who have put their money in Mexico. The United States is not responsible if all of it is wiped out.

Conditions in Mexico are gradually improving. The border is well patrolled. Another raid into the border states is unlikely. A stable government will be formed if Carranza is able to float a loan in the United States.

The United States owes protection to its citizens in Mexico and elsewhere, of course. But it owes nothing to European investors. The first, the government is doing as best it can; the last we trust it will never do.

BANKHEAD FOR PRESIDENT PRO TEM OF SENATE.

According to news dispatches sent out from Washington, Senator Bankhead of Alabama is in line for the place of president pro tempore of the senate. This is an honor that is thoroughly deserved by the Alabama law-maker, and if he cares for the place he should have the support of the solid southern delegation, at least. Now that the cry of sectionalism has been raised by Candidate Hughes and other republicans, there is no good reason why the South should not fight for whatever is in sight. It is apparent that by no other means can that recognition due a very substantial part of the United States be secured. Senator Bankhead, by native ability and long service, is more than entitled to the place, which was left vacant by the recent death of Senator Clarke of Arkansas.

Don't forget that Christmas days are again drawing near. Don't forget that merchants in this town have the goods that you want to buy for those Christmas days.

Don't forget that every dollar you spend with a local merchant remains in local circulation and enriches the community just that much. Don't forget that every dollar you spend outside of this town remains outside and decreases the money in local circulation just that much. Don't forget that an advertisement of a local merchant in this paper is an indication that the merchant is prepared to "make good" or he would not resort to publicity in soliciting your trade. Don't forget the good advertiser is generally a "live wire," and that live wires are better than "dead ones"—Exchange.

Whatever may be Germany's future intentions as to waging a ruthless submarine campaign, it is apparent that the Berlin government has no intention just now of violating its pledges to the United States. The care exercised by the submarines that crossed the Atlantic and brought the war to our shores in picking out only the merchant vessels of belligerent nations for soft places in Davy Jones' locker, showed plainly that the Kaiser is not trying to pick a quarrel with President Wilson.

AMUSEMENTS

Kathlyn Williams Scores the Triumph of Her Career.

In years of dramatic observation I have not seen a more adroit, a more finished piece of acting than Kathlyn Williams as Edith Cortlandt in Selig's ten-act screen version of Rex Beach's "The Ne'er-Do-Well," which comes to the Masonic theatre Monday.

As a masterful, reposeful study, so faultless in deportment that no censor can reasonably delete a foot of her—as a study, completely within every bound of decorum, yet ablaze with the dammed-up passion of an over-wealthy woman prisoned in a drum, this picture is more than photography; it is something that should be depended for perpetuity in the Louvre of creative accomplishment.

Wheeler Oakman does the work of his life as Kirk Anthony. Space forbids more than a word for the good, general cast, or for the very real excellence of the very real scene.

"FAIR AND WARMER" AT THE MASONIC THURSDAY, OCT. 19.
"Fair and Warmer," the Avery Hopwood farce classic with which Selwyn & Company made by all odds the biggest hit of the season last year.

York will appear here for a limited engagement this season. When Avery Hopwood wrote "Seven Days" and "Nobody's Widow," he was called "one of the most promising farce writers in America."

When his "Fair and Warmer" appeared, there was no more talk of promise. He was called "America's finest master of farce." His trick of cumulative interest, ludicrous situation, brilliant line and engaging characterization is all at its best in "Fair and Warmer."

Seats on sale Tuesday, Oct. 17.

"THE NE'ER-DO-WELL" AT THE MASONIC MONDAY AFTERNOON AND NIGHT, A MASTERPIECE.

The Selig ten-act screen version of Rex Beach's "The Ne'er-Do-Well" is considered to be the greatest moving picture production since "The Birth of a Nation."

"The Ne'er-Do-Well," with all its depth of love and soft sweet producing beauty, and fiendish jealousy, and black intrigue—with the naked passions of men and women bared before you as only Rex Beach can bare them. With its hero football player from New York ensnared alike by the dazzling Southern beauty Chiquita and the seductive Edith Cortlandt, wife of the other man.

The production will be shown at the Masonic theatre Monday afternoon and night.

From reports of local representatives good sales are being made and satisfaction being given to users of "Lemolac." The preparation is being extensively sold throughout the country.
